PANEL TK10

Nationalism and Academic Freedom in Turkey

(Roundtable)

On the heels of the recent campaigns launched by the Turkish military against the Kurds in the southeast, about 1,500 academics from all over the world have signed a petition denouncing these operations. The Turkish signatories have since become the target of investigations over alleged “terror propaganda,” which culminated in the arrest of three prominent academics on March 15, 2016. The roundtable aims to consider the possibility of action in solidarity with our persecuted colleagues.
